From the Principal…

Alamo has talented and dedicated teachers and support staff, known for their “can-do” spirit! The Alamo Staff respects our students as individuals; they hold high expectations for our children's learning and behavior; they build on their strengths and interests; and they ensure that students experience success everyday at school. Their positive vibe is what makes Alamo School such an amazing school!

And without hesitation, the valuable support from our parents, volunteers, and community members is unsurpassed. It’s the willingness of the community who volunteer their time, helping students improve their academic skills, which enables Alamo to achieve greatness.

Simply, schools can’t do it alone. On Friday, October 28th, the Alamo PTA will host its yearly Fall Festival. I encourage you to contact our PTA or your child’s teacher to offer 30 minutes of your time for that evening. When we all pitch in, in any way, the event will surely be the best ever.

There are many other opportunities for you to be involved at Alamo. You can help out by volunteering in the classroom, playground, cafeteria, school library, attending field trips, and becoming an Alamo PTA member. You can also help out by making sure your child attends school every day on time, communicating with your child’s teacher on a regular basis, and attending school events. When staff, parents, volunteers and community members work together, children win!
